THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT A PATIENT MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW A PATIENT CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

This Notice of Privacy Practices describes how JVHL may use and disclose a patient's protected health information (PHI) to carry out treatment, payment or health care operations (TPO) and for other purposes that are permitted or required by law. It also describes the patient's rights to access and control their protected health information. "Protected health information" is information about a patient, including demographic information, that may identify the patient and that relates to a patient's past, present or future physical or mental health condition and related health care services.

USES AND DISCLOSURES OF PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION

Protected health information may be used and disclosed by JVHL, our office staff and others outside of our office that are involved in a patient's care and treatment for the purpose of providing health care services to a you, to pay your health care bills, to support the operations of JVHL, and any other use required by law.

Treatment: We will use and disclose your protected health information to provide, coordinate, or manage your health care and any related services. This includes the coordination or management of your health care with a third party. For example, your protected health information may be provided to your health plan to ensure appropriate oversight of your treatment plan.

Payment: Your protected health information will be used, as needed, to obtain payment for your health care services. For example, obtaining additional medical records to support payment for a procedure.

Healthcare Operations: We may use or disclose, as-needed, your protected health information in order to support the business activities of your physician's practice. These activities include, but are not limited to, providing lab results as requested by your physician to disease management systems that are utilized to align with required performance criteria for your care.

We may use or disclose your protected health information in the following situations without your authorization. These situations include: as required by law, public health issues as required by law, communicable diseases, health oversight, abuse or neglect, food and drug administration requirements, legal proceedings, law enforcement, coroners, funeral directors, organ donation, research, criminal activity, military activity and national security, workers' compensation, inmates, and other required uses and disclosures. Under the law, we must make disclosures to you upon your request. Under the law, we must also disclose your protected health information when required by the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services to investigate or determine our compliance with the requirements under Section 164.500.

Other Permitted and Required Uses and Disclosures will be made only with your consent, authorization or opportunity to object unless required by law. You may revoke the authorization, at any time, in writing, except to the extent that your physician or the physician's practice has taken an action in reliance on the use or disclosure indicated in the authorization.

YOUR RIGHTS

The following are statements of your rights with respect to your protected health information.

You have the right to inspect and copy your protected health information (fees may apply) – Under federal law, however, you may not inspect or copy the following records: Psychotherapy notes, information compiled in reasonable anticipation of, or used in, a civil, criminal, or administrative action or proceeding, protected health information restricted by law, information that is related to medical research in which you have agreed to participate, information whose disclosure may result in harm or injury to you or to another person, or information that was obtained under a promise of confidentiality.

JVHL will charge a fee for the copy of the patient's PHI or for a summary of the PHI, as allowed under applicable law:
